CHAPTER 52 PARTING GIFT
STORY & ART BY HAN YAN

A large, stylized illustration of a mountain landscape. In the foreground, a large, stylized orange and yellow character '火' (Fire) is prominently displayed, appearing to be part of the landscape or a large flame. The background features jagged, snow-capped mountains under a sky with radiating lines, suggesting a bright sun or a powerful light source. The overall style is reminiscent of traditional Chinese ink wash painting but with a more vibrant, modern color palette.
